IMAGE LICENSING

All images requested and purchased through Toronto Stock Photo are offered on an individual license basis - sometimes referred to as Rights Managed Licensing. The copyright of the image is always retained by the photographers and Toronto Stock Photo. The licenses serve to protect the rights of all the photographers, Toronto Stock Photo, the licensee and even the subject matter of the images. Rights management has advantages for the licensee as it can be used to limit the use of a particular image, even allowing the use to be licensed exclusively, which effectively embargoes the use of the same image within the requested media.

USAGE RIGHTS

When an image is licensed by Toronto Stock Photo, the usage is specified on the invoice and cannot be used for any other purpose without further agreement by Toronto Stock Photo. The license will state the media use, where it will be used use, which size, print run and the duration of the usage.

USAGE FEE

A fee is generally payable to license any “rights managed” image, this means the fee is based on how the image is going to be used, this also guarantees the payer or client that they will have sole ownership (exclusive or not) of that photo. This will be calculated by such factors as the print run, media, the reproduction size, and the duration of the usage and whether the requested use is exclusive or non-exclusive. Toronto Stock Photo calculates this fee by relying in good faith on the information provided by the licensee. Incorrect information can lead to a surcharge on the originally agreed fee and may lead to a cancellation of the license.

CREDIT LINES

With all editorial rights managed photography, Toronto Stock Photo should be credited with any reproduction of their work. The credit line would need to read © Toronto Stock Photo. The preferable location for this credit line is immediately adjacent to the image or in the acknowledgements or credits section. For all commercial and advertising uses, we would request that the licensee would use reasonable effort to provide the same credit line.

MODEL & PROPERTY RELEASE

Unless specified by Toronto Stock Photo in images details, no model releases or other releases for any images are available. The licensee is responsible for clearing all necessary permissions from third parties, be they people, buildings, art, art animals, which may include trademarks, personality rights, property rights, fine art rights, etc. The licensee shall indemnify and hold Toronto Stock Photo harmless against any and all claims, liability, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) arising out of the use of any Image for which:

- (a) no release was furnished by Toronto Stock Photo in writing.
